1.0 Purpose

To establish policies and procedures for all non-uniformed supervisory, professional, and confidential employees or other personnel of the City of York who are not otherwise covered by a Labor Agreement.

2.0 Scope

2.1 Classification of Employees

All non-organized positions of the City of York will be divided into the exempt and the non-exempt employees.

-1 The exempt employees shall include the following: Mayor and personal staff and advisors; department directors; professionals; and employees in administrative or supervisory positions as defined by Fair Labor Standards Act.

-2 The non-exempt employees shall include all employees in the City service that are not covered by a bargaining unit and meet the criteria for non-exempt employees as defined in Fair Labor Standards Act.

Volunteer personnel, personnel appointed to serve without pay, and such positions Involving seasonal, temporary, or part-time employment shall not accumulate the rights and privileges later defined or any other benefits. They will be subject to all other provisions.

For purposes of definition, a temporary employee is one hired for a period of less than sixty (60) working days. A part-time employee is one hired to work less than thirty-five (35) hours per week. A seasonal employee is one who is hired to perform duties which are of a seasonal nature and who works no more than ninety (90) working days during any given calendar year.

2.2 Appointments

Appointments shall be made to positions with the City in a manner which ensures that the best qualified applicants are hired. The screening process may consist of an evaluation of past experience and training, educational background, background and character reference checks, testing, and a physical evaluation, prior to induction.

3.0 Probationary Period and Permanent Employment

3.1 Probationary Periods for New Employees

A new employee shall be regarded as a probationary employee until he employee has completed a total of sixty (60) working days, excluding time lost due to illness or vacation.

-1 Probationary employees may be transferred from job to job and/or relieved without question, when in the opinion of the City they fail to perform satisfactorily.

-2 Excused absence without pay may be granted to probationary employees only upon approval of the supervisor and/or Director.

3.2 Promotional Probationary Period

Employees who are promoted or upgraded into a new position shall be regarded as probationary employees for sixty working (60) days, excluding time lost due to illness or vacation.

Those employees who fail to perform satisfactorily shall be returned to their previous classification and rate, if the prior position remains available. If such position is not available, the City will endeavor to place the employee into a position which they are qualified for or if none exists the employee will be laid off.

3.3 Completion of Probationary Period for New Employees

A probationary employee will become a regular full-time employee upon the successful completion of the probationary period. Prior to the completion of the probationary period, the immediate supervisor shall discuss the employee's work performance with the employee and submit his/her recommendations and a performance evaluation form to the Department Director and the Human Resources Department for final action.

4.0 Promotions and Transfers

All promotional procedures for non-organized employees shall be governed by these regulations except where they may be in conflict with collective bargaining agreements or Civil Service Commission Rules and Regulations.

4.1 Criteria for Promotion

All employees must possess the qualifications necessary for the position to which they seek promotion. The Department Director with the consent of the Mayor and the Director of Human Resources shall be responsible for determining whether or not an employee possesses the necessary qualifications for promotion to a particular position. Appropriate tests may be given to aid in this determination.

4.2 Promotional Probationary Period

See Section 3.2

4.3 Permanent Appointment for Promoted Employees

A promoted employee will receive a regular full-time appointment to a new position upon the successful completion of the probationary period, the written recommendation of the Department Director and a satisfactory or better performance evaluation.

4.4 Replacement of Promoted Employee

When a successful bidder has been transferred to a new position, the position that they previously held can be filled. The promoted employee then has no rights to return to the previous position unless a vacancy exists. This applies whether or not the promoted employee has completed his/her probationary period.

5.0 Hours of Work

5.1 General

The specific arrangement and adjustment of the hours of the work week shall be the duty of the Department Director with the approval of the Mayor and the Business Administrator.

5.2 Regularly Scheduled Employees

All regularly scheduled non-organized employees shall work the number of hours that coincide with the hours that City Hall is normally open, or the hours common to their particular department, whichever is appropriate. Supervisors will work the same hours as the employees under their direction. The scheduling of individual lunch periods will be at the discretion of the individual supervisor.

5.3 Irregular Scheduling

In as much as certain departments must regularly operate seven (7) days per week, non-organized employees of these departments may be required to work during any day of the week on a schedule to be determined by the Department Director.

Exempt personnel may be required to perform duties related to their position beyond the normal work hours as required by the specific needs of the department.

6.0 Vacation Leave

6.1 General

Exempt employees shall earn vacation as of the first day of January in accordance with the schedule's below: (i.e. An employee is credited with a year of service on January 1 of each year regardless of when during the calendar year his/her anniversary date falls.)

Four Years	16 days	120.00
Nine Years	20 days	150.00
Fourteen Years	22 days	165.00
Over Nineteen Years	24 days	180.00

Vacation leave for non-exempt employees shall not be granted until they have completed six (6) months of continuous service with the City. Vacation leave for exempt employees may be granted immediately with the approval of the Department Director or appropriate elected official.

6.2 Vacation Leave

Vacation leave shall be granted to all regular employees, hired after July 1, 1988, who work less than a full work week but at least thirty-five (35) hours per week in proportion to the hours worked per week by full time employees within their job classification. Employees hired prior to July 1, 1988 who work at least twenty (20) hours per week will receive vacation.

6.3 Vacation Accumulation

Employees must be in compensable status for half of the working days of the month to earn vacation for that month. An employee is in compensable status only when working or on leave with pay.

If a holiday occurs during an employee's assigned vacation and the employee is regularly entitled to the holiday, it will not be counted as part of the annual leave.

Employees may carry a maximum of one year's earned vacation, excess vacation must be used (or forfeited) by April 30th subsequent to the carry-over.

Employees carrying an excess of one year's earned vacation as of June 1, 2006 will not lose hours already earned; however, these hours will be capped going forward.

Subject to the availability of funding and agreement between the City and the employee, and one time only, an employee may receive a payment in exchange for accumulated earned vacation. The payment to the employee shall be limited to 67% of the employee's current rate of compensation for the quantity of vacation time sold.

6.4 Vacation Approval

Vacation shall not be granted in advance of its being earned. Except for emergency situations, vacation must be requested in advance. Any advance vacation granted will not exceed five (5) days.

All vacation leave scheduled must be approved by the Department Director or the elected official in charge.

Vacation leave shall be charged as used in amounts of not less than one-half (1/2) hour.

6.5 Terminal Vacation

Employees shall not be permitted to waive vacation leave for the purpose of receiving double pay. Unused vacation may be used toward early retirement.

In the event of a non-organized employee's separation from service with the City prior to the completion of six (6) months of service, they shall be ineligible for terminal vacation. Employees who have completed six (6) months of continuous service with the City shall receive pay for unused vacation leave s stated below:

Although leave that will be earned during a calendar year is advanced to employees at the commencement of each calendar year, it is still earned on a monthly pro-rata basis. Any employee leaving the employment of the City prior to the end of the calendar year, who has utilized more than the monthly pro-rata share of leave, as set forth above, shall be required to reimburse the City for any overpayment of vacation leave. The City will deduct this overpayment from any outstanding paychecks of the employee, or to take any other lawful measure to recoup this overpayment.

7.0 Sick Leave

7.1 General

Sick leave shall be earned at the rate of two and one-half (2 ½) days per month, with a maximum accumulation of one hundred thirty-five (135) days. Employees hired after September 1, 1997 shall earn sick leave at a rate of one and one half (1½) days per month.

7.2 Medical Certification of Illness

A doctor's certificate is required to substantiate illness for an absence from work of more than three consecutive days. For absences of three days or less, a doctor's certificate will be required when, in the City's opinion, the employee has been abusing sick leave privileges.

7.3 Eligibility

An employee is not entitled to sick leave until he has been with the City for six (6) months.

Employees must be in compensable status for half of the working days of the month to earn sick leave for the month. An employee is in compensable status when working or on leave with pay. Sick leave shall not be granted in advance of its being earned.

Routine physical appointments by employees, as opposed to emergency physical care do not qualify for sick leave. Employees must make every effort to schedule out-patient appointments outside of working hours.

Sick leave may be used when the employee is ill or injured only. Pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions will be treated the same as illness. Sick leave may be used for emergency or in case of illness in the immediate family which requires that the employee be present. Five (5) days sick leave for illness in the immediate family may be used each year without being substantiated by a physician's statement. Sick leave for family illness in excess of five (5) days per year will be permitted only where the illness of the family member has been substantiated by a statement from the attending physician. Such leave may not exceed a reasonable and necessary time limit as specified by the attending physician, nor may more than fifteen (15) days per year be used for this purpose.

7.4 Reimbursement for Unused Sick Leave

Employees hired before January 1, 1977, shall receive either fifteen (15) percent of their unused, accumulated sick leave upon termination after six (6) months of service, or twenty-five (25) percent of their unused, accumulated sick leave upon full retirement after twenty (20) years of continuous service, or upon retirement under Social Security Age Requirements; employees hired after January 1, 1977, but before July 1, 1982, shall receive twenty-five (25) percent of their unused, accumulated sick leave upon full retirement after twenty (20) years of continuous service or upon retirement under Social Security Age Requirements.

Employees hired after July 1, 1982, shall receive no payment for unused, accumulated sick leave.

8.0 Workers Compensation

8.1 General

In the event that an employee sustains an injury while in the line of duty with the City, they shall not suffer any loss of pay during the period of temporary, total disability. The full amount necessary for the employee's contribution to the Officers' and Employees' Pension Fund must still be made. All employees shall immediately report to their immediate supervisor and such injury or accident and see that the proper forms are completed.

9.0 Bereavement Leave

9.1 General

Employees shall be granted up to three (3) days leave, upon request and approval of the request by their Department Director, to attend the funeral of a current spouse, parent, step-parent, grandparent, child, step-child, grandchild or sibling. Employees shall be granted one (1) day leave, upon request and approval of the request by their Department Director, to attend the funeral of a mother-in-law or father-in-law.

All other leave for death in the family must be taken as vacation leave, if any, and in lieu of vacation leave, unused, accumulated sick leave may be used.

10.0 Holidays

10.1 General

Regular, full-time exempt employees shall receive one day's pay at their current rate for holidays observed by City Hall. Regular part-time employees, who are regularly scheduled to work a minimum of 20 hours per week, 5 days per week, shall receive their current base rate for their normally scheduled hours for holiday's observed by City Hall. Non-exempt employees must have completed their probationary period to be eligible for holiday pay. Employees eligible for holiday pay must be in a pay status the last scheduled working day prior to and the first scheduled working day after the holiday to receive holiday pay. Should an employee be absent from work on either of these days due to illness, a doctor's certificate must be presented in order to receive holiday pay.

Normally, such paid time off shall be granted on the day the holiday occurs. Holidays falling on Saturday will be observed on the previous Friday. Holidays falling on Sunday will be observed on the following Monday.

10.2 Holidays Granted

The holidays referred to above are:

New Year's Day	Thanksgiving Day
Martin Luther King Day	Day after Thanksgiving
Good Friday	Day before Christmas
Memorial Day	Christmas Day
Independence Day
Labor Day

Three (3) floating holidays are also included.

All non-union, regular full-time employees shall be entitled to one "Personal Holiday" in addition to the holidays outlined above. All non-union regular part-time employees shall be entitled to one "Personal Holiday" at their current base rate for their normally scheduled hours. All employees entitled to holiday pay shall be entitled to three (3) floating holidays at their current base rate for their normally scheduled hours. A new employee hired after June 1st in any given calendar year, and entitled to holiday pay will be entitled to one "Personal Holiday" in addition to the holidays outlined above and two (2) floating holidays. These holidays are to be requested in the same manner as vacation leave and the scheduling of such leave is subject to the City's responsibility to maintain efficient operations.

11.0 Health and Life Benefits

11.1 General

Health Insurance benefits are available for all non-organized employees who regularly work over thirty-five (35) hours per week. Life Insurance benefit is paid for all full-time employees. All coverage becomes effective on the first of the month following the end of the sixty (60) working day probationary period. Additional Life Insurance can be purchased and interested employees should request information on same from the Benefits Coordinator. Details of the benefit program are available by contacting the Benefits Coordinator.

12.0 Leave of Absence

12.1 Leave of Absence without Pay

A leave of absence without pay for personal reasons, may be granted by the City upon the written request of an employee whose seniority exceeds one (1) year at the date of the request. Such leave may be granted for a period of up to ninety (90) calendar days and may be renewed upon the request of the employee. A request for a leave of absence shall be in writing, stipulating the beginning and termination dates of the desired leave and the reason for such request. Requests must be submitted for decision to the appropriate Department Director and the Director of Human Resources.

It is understood that a leave of absence shall not be used for the purpose of accepting gainful employment elsewhere. Employees accepting such employment elsewhere shall be considered to have quit without notice.

12.2 Leave of Absence with Pay

The Department Director, with the approval of the Mayor and/or the Business Administrator, may grant leaves of absence with pay to regular, full-time employees whenever such leave shall be in the City's best interest.

13.0 Absenteeism

13.1 General

The City recognizes that circumstances may arise which causes an employee to be late in reporting for work or absent from work.

The City considers employees who exceed more than two (2) latenesses per month for a three (3) month period and/or more than one (1) absence a month for a three (3) month period to be failing to fulfill their responsibilities as a City employee.

13.2 Disciplinary Procedures

When an employee is considered to have an unacceptable attendance record, appropriate disciplinary steps will be taken.

-1 A written notice will be received from the immediate supervisor indicating that corrective action by the employee is necessary.

-2 If the employee's attendance does not show marked improvement, further progressive disciplinary action may be taken up to and including suspension without pay and/or discharge.

-3 An absence of more than one (1) work week without notification to the employee's supervisor, department, or Human Resources Department will be grounds for dismissal. The supervisor or department will be responsible for notifying the Human Resources Department of any absenteeism of employees.

13.3 Salaried Supervisory and Professional Employees

Exempt employees may not be subject to this section predicated upon their job responsibilities and their hours of work, as determined by their respective department directors.
This does not exempt this class of employees from performing their duties within the normal working hours established under Section 6.0. It shall be the responsibility of the Department Director or the elected officials to supervise the hours of work performed by this class of employees.

Disciplinary actions directed at an employee in this class shall be at the discretion of the Department Director or elected official. The disciplinary steps shall be similar to the ones outlined above.

14.0 Jury Duty

14.1 General

If a non-organized employee is required to serve on a jury on one or more days when the employee would otherwise have been scheduled to work, the City shall pay the employee the difference (if any) between the money received for such jury service (excluding any payment for food, lodging, travel, or "mileage" allowances) and his regular straight pay.

This section shall also apply to any employee who is subpoenaed as a witness.

15.0 Rehire

15.1 General

Any non-organized employee having resigned from the City workforce who is later rehired will be considered as a new employee with no accrued rights, privileges, seniority, or benefits except for such rights that may be available under an existing pension plan.

16.0 Political Activity

16.1 General

City employees may neither be appointed to nor retained in service as a result of their political affiliations and activities.

City employees are expected to exercise their right of suffrage as citizens and engage in normal political activities except that employees may not engage in political activities that are in violation of Title V, Chapter 15 of the United States Code (The Hatch Act).

Elected officials are exempted from the compliance with this policy procedure and from the stipulations of the Hatch Act as outlined in Title V, Chapter 15 of the United States Code.

17.0 Outside Employment

17.1 General

Employees may not engage in outside employment which might in any way hinder their objective and impartial performance of their public duties, impair their efficiency on the job, or create a conflict of interest in regard to the city business.

18.0 Acceptance of Gifts

18.1 General

Acceptance of money or gifts by any employee, when received from a citizen under circumstances indicating the hope or expectations of receiving a favor, or better treatment than accorded the general public, is prohibited and shall result in disciplinary action.

19.0 Pay Plan Administration Policies

19.1 Post-Probationary Pay Rates

New employees hired after July 1 of the calendar year will not normally receive an increase until after satisfactory completion of six (6) months of service and upon written recommendation from the Department Director to institute such as a pay increase.

Salaries for regular, full-time employees are normally reviewed prior to January 1st of each year and increases, if warranted, are normally effective on January 1st. The mount of the increase, if any, will be at the discretion of the Department Director with the approval of the Mayor and/or Business Administrator.

19.2 Pay Increases

The Department Director must recommend (or not recommend s the case may be) all regular pay increases and may, with the approval of the Mayor and/or business Administrator grant additional or special merit pay increases to all non-organized employees who perform outstanding work.

19.3 Withholding Pay Increases

If a regular, full-time employee is not performing satisfactorily, the Department Director may elect to withhold an increase pending the accomplishment of satisfactory performance by the employee.

In this case, the Department Director shall notify the employee in writing of the recommended action to withhold the pay increase, and shall state the reasons for such determination. A copy of such communication shall be forwarded to the Human Resources Department. In addition, a performance evaluation shall also be submitted.

19.4 Pay Period

Pay period for all City employees including non-organized, full-time, regular, part-time and temporary as well as elected and appointed officials will be on a bi-weekly basis. Pay day will be on Friday or the last scheduled working day of the week.

19.5 Early Distribution of Paycheck

Paychecks are ready for distribution after 3:00 p.m. on Thursday at the Controller's Office. The only exception to the above will be when City Hall is closed due to a Holiday, when checks will be available on Wednesday at 3:00 p.m. in the Controller's Office.

20.0 Overtime

The purpose of this policy is to provide a standardized guideline to compensate "non-exempt", non-organized employees for work performed in excess of 40 working hours in a workweek.

20.1 General

Unless an employee is considered to be "exempt" in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act, an employee covered by this Policy shall be compensated for all hours worked in a workweek. Non-exempt employees shall be paid time and one-half (1½) their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per workweek.

20.2 Eligible Hours

Overtime pay will not be required for work performed in excess of 7.5 hours or 8 hours per day, or for work performed on Saturdays, Sundays, Holidays or regular day of rest, unless such employee works more than 40 hours in the course of their workweek. Only hours actually worked will count toward the computation of overtime pay.

20.3 Approval

Overtime hours worked shall have the prior approval of the employee's Department Director or designee unless the overtime is a direct result of a designated emergency that threatens the health and welfare of the citizens of the City of York. An employee's work schedule may be changed in the same workweek to prevent overtime.

20.4 Abuse

Every attempt shall be made by the employee to schedule meetings and daily activities during normal work hours. Patterns of abuse and/or failure to receive prior approval to work overtime shall be reviewed by the Department Director or designee and may result in a range of disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

20.5 Compensatory Time

Effective July 25, 2010, the accrual of compensatory time shall be eliminated for all "exempt" and "non-exempt" position classifications covered under this Policy.

21.0 Performance Evaluation Criteria

21.1 General

All non-organized employees except elected officials shall be evaluated periodically. These evaluations will be considered in determining salary increases, promotions, lay-offs and dismissals. Refer to Standard Operating Procedures on Performance Evaluations (SPI 53-2).

22.0 Tuition Refund

22.1 General

The administration of the tuition refund policy will be the responsibility of the Department Director and the Director of Human Resources. In general, the following stipulations shall be established in order to properly administer the tuition refund system.

22.2 Eligibility Requirements

For an employee to be eligible for tuition reimbursement, the employee must be a full-time, regular employee of the City.

22.3 Reimbursement Provisions

Participating employees will be reimbursed, as provided in this policy statement, when the following records have been processed and approved:

-1 Application by letter to the Director of Human Resources via the Department Director prior to the registration for each course.

-2 A receipt showing the amount of tuition which has been paid.

-3 Official notification of the satisfactory completion of the course with a passing grade (minimum of "C" or equivalent) for acceptable credit as established by the educational institution.

22.4 Curricula Requirements

An employee will be eligible for reimbursement only if he takes such courses during off-duty hours.

A limit of one course per semester may be scheduled during normal working hours provided that the enrolled employee obtains written permission from the Department Director that will excuse him from duty during the time the class meets and provided that the class cannot be scheduled during off-duty hours.

The selected courses must be given by an accredited college, university or technical school.

Tuition reimbursement will only be allowed for course work related to, or within the scope of work, or which will be beneficial in the performance of the duties of the employee in question. This determination will be the responsibility of the Department Director and the Director of Human Resources.

22.5 Financial Provisions

An employee who satisfied will requirements of this policy will be reimbursed 50% of the total cost of course work, including tuition, registration fees, laboratory fees and cost of books. Such reimbursements will be made on a quarter or semester basis, depending on the educational institution involved. Travel costs will not be reimbursed

An employee will not be reimbursed for tuition costs which are paid through other sources.

23.0 Discipline

23.1 General

This section is applicable to all non-organized employees of the City of York.

23.2 Progressive Discipline

Employees are subject to the progressive discipline procedures outlined in the standard operational procedures (SPI 53-5A – appendix C). Progressive discipline consists of four steps; (1) oral reprimand, (2) written reprimand, (3) suspension, (4) discharge. Serious acts of misconduct may result in steps one, two or three being skipped and discipline immediately accelerated to step four.

23.3 Suspension

Suspension shall be of two types: for cause, and during an investigation.

-1 Suspension for Cause – the Department Director may, for disciplinary reasons, suspend and employee at any time. An employee who is suspended, shall be given a written notice of the reasons for the action and a copy of such notice shall be made a part of the employee's file. This suspension will be without pay.

-2 Suspension during an investigation – During investigation, hearing, or trail of an employee on any civil or criminal charge when suspension would be in the interest of the City, an employee may be suspended by the Department Director for the duration of the proceedings. This suspension, at the discretion of the Department Director, may be either with or without pay.

23.4 Dismissal

The Department Director may recommend dismissal of an employee after reviewing the situation with the Mayor, Business Administrator or the Director of Human Resources, whenever the employee's conduct in office justifies such action or when economic conditions warrant a reduction in force.

An employee who is dismissed, shall be given written notice of the reasons for the action and a copy of the notice shall be made a part of the employee's personnel file.

An employee who is dismissed for reasons pertaining to his or her conduct in office shall be entitled to a hearing with the Department Director, his/her immediate supervisor and a member of the city's legal staff.

Solicitors may be dismissed by the Mayor with or without cause at any time. Provisions of Section 23 do not apply to employees in these positions.

24.0 Officers and Employees Retirement Fund

24.1 Membership

Membership in the plan is compulsory for all full time, permanent employees and elected officials. Additional information on pensions can be obtained from the Human Resources Department.

25.0 Travel

25.1 General

Employees may be required to travel within the City or out of town on City business. Travel for work related purpose to areas within the circumference of a circle with the City of York at the center and the length of the radius being drawn from the City of York to the furthest distant part of Pennsylvania. Travel within this area may be done with the approval of the Department Director. Outside this area requires approval of the Department Director AND Business Administrator. Employees traveling on City business are considered working while traveling or conducting City business.

While traveling away from the normal worksite, employees should conduct themselves in a manner that reflects favorably upon the City. Conduct, that embarrasses the City, or adversely affects the City's credibility, reputation or good will, may be grounds for discipline.
